

Please do not over ride the very nice telephone privacy law we have in Indiana. This law has helped us to get rid of endless telephone solicitations which used to come mainly at meal times. It has been very peaceful since this law went into effect. Please don't let all these unwanted telemarketers harass us again!